OUR HONORED DEAD.

Once more the people of the whole civilized world mourn the death of a great American; once more has inexorable Death, directed by a vile assassin, taken from us another beloved President, James A. Garfield, who, after weeks of patient suffering, calmly departed this life on Monday evening, in the prime of manhood, and at the very commencement of an administration of our governmental affairs that gave promise of restoring to our common country a greater bounty of harmony and general prosperity than we have enjoyed as a people for scores of years. The few short months of his administration proved him to be a man of great administrative ability, and possessing impulses too noble and generous to doubt that he was not honorable and just in the highest degree. No man ever entered the Presidency of these United States after so heated and vituperative a political contest, as was the last, and so quickly won the love and confidence of an entire people, irrespective of party, nationality or class, as did JAMES A. GARFIELD. He has left a bright and noble record, and his memory will ever be cherished with Washington's and Lincoln's. May He who sees the sparrows fall bless the aged and loving mother, the heroic and faithful wife, and the fatherless children of the honored dead!

WASHINGTON—LINCOLN—GARFIELD—the greatest of American Presidents!

The Mussel Slough prisoners are to be released from the San Jose jail to-day.

Action brought in the said Court, in and for the said County of Mono, State of California, and to answer the Complaint filed therein, with a ten days' exclusive of the day of service, after the service on you of this summons, if served within this County; or, if served elsewhere, within thirty days.

The said action is brought to obtain a decree of this Court for the foreclosure of a certain mortgage described in the said Complaint, and executed by the said George L. Putnam and Thomas H. Putnam and Thomas H. Kennedy for the balance remaining due, and also that the said Defendants and all persons claiming by, through, or under them, may be barred and foreclosed of all right, title, claim, lien, equity of redemption, and interest in and to said mortgaged premises, and for other and further relief, as will more fully appear by reference to the Complaint on file herein.

DEATH OF THE PRESIDENT.

The President died on Monday evening at 10:30 o'clock. After the 5:30 evening bulletin, was issued he continued in much the same condition as during the afternoon, the pulse varying from 102 to 106, with rather increased force and volume. After taken nourishment he fell into a quiet sleep about thirty-five minutes before his death, and while a leap his pulse rose to 120, and was somewhat more feeble. At ten minutes past ten he awoke, complaining of severe pain over the region of the heart, and almost immediately became unconscious, and ceased to breathe at 10:30.

The death-bed scene was particularly impressive. As soon as the doctors found there was no longer a hope, the members of the family attended. Dr. Bliss stood at the head of the bed with hand on the pulse of the President and consulted in low whispers with Dr. Agnew. The Private Secretary stood on the opposite side of the bed with Mrs. Garfield leaning on his arm. Mrs. Lulu Rockwell and Miss Mollie Garfield came into the room at the time the President lost consciousness. Afterward they went into the hall, the door of which remained open, and stood there. What conversation was had was in whispers. Those about the bed occasionally went to the corners of the room and spoke to each other with great solemnity. The occasion fully impressed them. There was no sound except the gasping for breath of the sufferer, whose changing color gave indications of the approach of the end. After he had repeated, "It hurts," he passed into unconsciousness, breathing heavily at times, and then giving slight indications that the breath was still in his body. The only treatment that was given was hypodermic injections of brandy by Dr. Agnew, assisted by Dr. Boynton. Occasionally they spoke to Dr. Bliss in quiet whispers. The President suffered no pain after he placed his hand upon his heart. He passed away almost quietly. The time between life and death was marked by no physical exhibition nor any word. There was absolutely no scene. The intervals between the gasping became longer, and presently there was no sound. Every one present knew death had come quickly, without pain. When it became evident that he was dead, Mrs. Rockwell placed her arm around Mrs. Garfield and led her quietly from the room. She uttered no word. One by one left the room, the doctors only remaining, and the windows were closed.

The autopsy revealed that the ball, after fracturing the eleventh right rib, had passed through the spinal column in front of the spinal canal, fracturing the base of the first lumbar vertebra, driving a number of small fragments of bone into the adjacent soft parts, and lodging just below the pancreas, about two inches and a half to the left of the spine and behind the peritoneum, where it had become entirely encysted. The immediate cause of death was secondary hemorrhage from one of the mesenteric arteries adjoining the track of the ball, the blood rupturing the peritoneum, and nearly a pint escaping into the abdominal cavity. This hemorrhage is believed to have been the cause of the severe pain in the lower part of the chest complained of just before death. An abscess cavity of six inches by four in diameter was found in the vicinity of the gall bladder, between the liver and transverse colon, which were strongly interadherent. It did not involve the substance of the liver, and no communication was found between it and the wound. A long suppurating channel extended from the external wound, being in the loin muscles and right kidney, almost to the right groin. This channel is now known to be due to the barrowing of the pus from the wound, which was supposed during life to have been the track of the ball. The organs of the chest showed evidences of bronchitis on both sides, with broncho-pneumonia of the lower portions of the right lung, and, though less in extent of the left lung, it contained no abscesses, and the heart contained no clots. The liver was enlarged and fatty, but free from abscesses. Nor were any found in any other organ except the left kidney, which contained, near its surface, a small abscess about one-third of an inch in diameter.

Private Secretary Brown says that the extreme emaciation of the President was a surprise to the undertaker and embalmer. It is possible to clasp the leg above the knee with the hand.

The remains were removed to Washington on Wednesday, and to Cleveland yesterday, where obsequies will take place to-day.

THE UNION.

BRIDGEPORT, SEPTEMBER 24, 1881.

Job Printing.—Job printing of the finest description will be furnished at this office at Sacramento prices.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.—The Supervisors will meet as a Board of Equalization on next Monday week, October 2d, to levy the taxes for State and county purposes. It is to be hoped the Board will put the rate of taxation at the lowest possible rate, and not try to wipe out the entire indebtedness of the county at one swoop. The lighter the rate of taxation, the greater the inducement to capitalists to invest in the county. Let improvements that have been made since the 1st of March—too late to go on this year's assessment roll—help pay next year the indebtedness accruing since that date. With the addition of the assessment of the Bodie Railway & Lumber Co., the Bodie Tunnel Mill, and other Bodie improvements, coupled with an increased assessment in the Sweetwater District, next year's assessment roll should foot up one million dollars higher than this year's. A low rate of taxation enables a taxpayer to meet the obligation, while a higher rate would throw him into the delinquent list to the detriment of the county funds, as they are worth fifty cents on the ranch as well as to himself by the adding of costs.

PERSONAL.—This week we have enjoyed friendly calls from M. Z. Osborne, of the Bodie Free Press, T. P. Ryan and R. S. Miner, of Bodie, and ex-Sheriff McBeth, of Monitor, Alpine county, who returned to his Alpine fastnesses to-day from a trip to Lundy. Bro. Osborne went on to Sweetwater, to see the mines.

GRAND BALL.—A grand ball will be given at the Allen House on Thursday evening next. The music will be of the best kind, and the band being engaged. This will be the first ball ever given in this town by Prof. Berliner, who will spare no pains or expense in making it one of the most enjoyable parties ever given in this county. As it has been some time since we had a ball here, it will undoubtedly be well attended. See advertisement under "New To Day."

NO CHANGES.—At the recent M. E. Conference held in Carson, no changes were made in the ministry in this section. Rev. Mr. Hinkle is continued as Presiding Elder, residing in Mason Valley; Rev. Mr. Nims, Antelope and Bridgeport; Rev. Mr. Warrington, Bodie; and Rev. Mr. Willis, Bishop Creek. The many friends of these gentlemen will be pleased to know that they are to remain among them another year.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Nellie Smith vs. Goodshaw M. Co., for $30,000 damages in the loss of her husband at the burning of the Goodshaw works last Fall, returned a verdict on Thursday in favor of Mrs. Smith, awarding her the sum of $15,000. Bengett & Reddy conducted the case for Mrs. Smith, and T. P. Ryan for the Company.

MILLINERY GOODS.—For a few weeks Mrs. A. C. McKinnon, of Bridgeport, will sell Millinery and Millinery Goods at reduced rates. The ladies will avail themselves of this opportunity to get their winter bonnets.

FIRST SNOW.—The first snow of the season fell on the mountains on Thursday afternoon and evening, and yesterday Castle Peak and adjacent mountains were wearing white caps. In the valleys some rain fell.

POSTPONED.—Owing to the death of President Garfield the ball advertised to be given by Prof. Berliner at the Allen House on Thursday last was postponed till Thursday evening next.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. Mr. Nims will hold services at the usual place to-morrow morning and evening. All are invited to attend. Sunday School at the School House at 2 o'clock p. m.

HAULING OFF.—Many of the Sonora fruit teams have discontinued their trips to this side of the mountains, fearing early snows, and a consequent closing of the Sonora road.

NEARLY FINISHED.—Ben. H. Miller's new residence is rapidly approaching completion. In view of the cold nights now setting in, it is but meet that it should be speedily put in readiness for occupancy.

POTATOES.—Jo. Caney, of Antelope Valley, has purchased the potato crop of the estate of the late Christian Telge, and will sell these fine potatoes in lots to suit.

PLEASANT.—We are having pleasant weather. The nights and mornings are quite cool—no frost yet.

ASSESSMENT.—The Boston Con. Co. has levied an assessment of 20 cents; delinquent, October 21; sale November 12th.

A. B. Stewart, Druggist, Bodie, has drugs, medicines, paints, oils, ammunition and cartridges.

ON DRY.—The Standard Consolidated is to be listed at the London Exchange.

NEXT CENSUS.—Antelope Valley has been doing well this season for the next census.

ANOTHER RAILROAD.

AVILA VALLEY.—The interest in the Uncle Billy mine increases as its development progresses. A crosscut has been run through the ledge, which shows a width of fourteen feet of good ore. A winze is now being sunk at the end of the tunnel. At a depth of fifty feet the ledge will again be cut, when it is thought a good showing of silver ore will be made. The ore from the crosscut in the tunnel is rich in copper, and contains a large percentage of silver. With a furnace at the mine, the mine, even at this stage of its development, could be made to pay its way. The Uncle Billy is well worthy the attention of moneyed men wanting a good "prospect," as it gives promise of being a very valuable mine.

Work is progressing favorably on the Copper claim, adjoining the Uncle Billy. A shaft is being sunk, and the indications are that it will be as good a mine as the Uncle Billy promises to be. The hay crop is all in, and the threshing machine is doing its work in the grain fields. The hay and grain crops have been good; and the same may be said of all the other vegetable kingdom.

Those who look to Antelope for fresh eggs will look in vain, as very few of the old hens are attending to that branch of their business, being more intent on getting their winter wardrobes in order. They are not disposed, either, to go in competition with their Salt Lake sisters, whose "fruit" is sold in Bodie at the rate of three dozen for a dollar, as fresh Antelope Valley eggs are worth fifty cents on the ranch when they can be found.

Mrs. Dr. Sinclair and Willie have been spending a couple of weeks with her father and old friends in the valley. They will return to Bridgeport to-day. Rev. Mr. Willis, of Bishop Creek, Inyo county, who is on his way home from California, held services on Wednesday evening in the little Church, which was well filled with the church-goers of the valley. Rev. Mr. Nims and wife returned from Conference on Tuesday. Mr. Nims has been continued in the work in the Antelope and Bridgeport circuit.

Durkin's Mill is in full operation, grinding barley for the Bridgeport and Bodie markets.

Wm. Boardman will start up the Antelope Sawmill in a few days on his own account.

THE SAIL NEWS.—The news of the death of our noble President was received here late on Monday evening, and all hearts were saddened. On Tuesday the flags on the Court House and Post Office were displayed at half-mast, and the Court House and many other buildings were appropriately draped in mourning. The Superior Court was adjourned by Judge Wiggins till Wednesday morning. There will be appropriate funeral ceremonies at Bodie on Monday. Bridgeport will be regretted.

Another Railroad.

Next year will be a "booming" one for the laboring men and mechanics of California and Nevada—if all the railroads now talked of are built. The latest project is the Nevada Pacific—a narrow-gauge to run from a point on Susan Bay, California, to Cloverdale, Nye county, Nevada. From its starting point on Susan Bay the road will run directly east through San Joaquin county to the foothills of the Sierra Nevada mountains; thence to the Big Trees of Calaveras; thence to the summit near Silver Mountain, Alpine county, via Hermit Valley in the same county; thence down Wolf Creek (a branch of the East Carson) to a point near Double Springs, in Douglas county, Nevada; thence via Walker river to the north end of Walker Lake; thence easterly to Cloverdale, Nevada. It is proposed to connect Stockton by a branch from a point 8 miles north of that city. A branch will also be constructed northward from Hermit Valley to the south end of Lake Tahoe, a distance of 30 miles, and other branches are thought of. It will connect with the Nevada and Oregon Narrow Gauge road at Double Springs; with the Nevada and Colorado Narrow Gauge at Walker Lake, and with the Nevada Southern at Cloverdale. The length of the main road will be two hundred miles.

THE NEW PRESIDENT.—Vice President Arthur took the oath of office as President at about twelve o'clock yesterday morning. It cannot be denied that our new President enters on the discharge of his duties, without the full confidence of his countrymen, but it is to be hoped he will pursue a course that will bring him that confidence, and show the people that in losing one good President we have gained another. He has the ability to make himself a popular President.

At a meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, of San Francisco, prayers were offered for the Michigan sufferers; whereupon it was suggested that if they expected God to hear prayers of that sort, not backed up with coin, they were badly mistaken. He did not do business that way. Collections were made.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania decides that a person who has paid a part of the purchase money on property, but is not entitled to ownership until the entire price is paid, has an insurable interest in the property to the extent of his own interest therein. This ruling would apply to furniture bought on the installment plan.

In 1853 or 1854 Ernest la Place was killed on Coyote creek, Santa Clara county, by Joaquin Murietta, and the body found with the right hand missing. A few days since, while digging for fish bait, a roll of zinc, containing a hand and a Mexican knife marked "J. M." were discovered.
